Here's How Your Tour Will Unfold...

Day One: Seattle- Columbia Gorge-Carson Hot Springs Resort

The fun begins as we head south to the Columbia River Gorge. We will stop for lunch along the way and see some of the best sights of the Gorge before checking into our gorgeous hotel. If there is a benefit to living along the Ring of Fire, it has to be hot, mineral-rich spring water bubbling up in remote and beautiful locations. Some of these hot springs were developed into resorts, allowing guests to soak their aches and cares away while also enjoying the Northwest's outstanding scenery and recreation.

My favorite hot springs resorts offer comfy accommodations, delicious food and many other amenities. And, they all have the "Ahhh" factor—that sound that escapes your lips as you sink gratefully into a steaming pool after a day of active fun. Tonight enjoy a "Welcome Dinner".
Meals included: Pastries, Dinner

Day Two: Carson Hot Springs- Hood River Fruit Loop Tour

Enjoy breakfast and we're off for a Fruit Loop Tour. No, the Fruit Loop is not the name of a candy treat, a Carmen Miranda earring, or a ride at the state fair. It's a 35-mile scenic meander through the fruit orchards, small towns, and back roads of the Hood River Valley. Located about 45 minutes east of
