Day Two:

Eugene-Crater Lake Lodge

Enjoy breakfast before departing for Crater Lake. Your first live view of Crater Lake will take your breath away. You may have seen pictures of its crystal

blue water
enclosed within a vast and glassy bowl. But nothing can prepare you for the

punch in the gut you'll feel when you're standing on the rim in person – just you, the lake, and the heavens above. At 1,943 feet (592 meters) Crater Lake is the deepest lake in the Day Three Crater Lake Lodge

Truly a grand northwest lodge, the historic 71-room Crater Lake Lodge originally opened in 1915 and is located on the edge of the caldera overlooking Crater Lake. The lodge was reopened after extensive renovation in 1995 and offers an atmosphere reminiscent of the 1920s and immerses visitors in its rustic charm. A sense of awe comes over you as you enter through the main entrance and view the boldly stated fireplace in the Great Hall. Each room provides the expected hotel standards of comfort, privacy and service. Immerse yourself in the history that surrounds you by visiting the Exhibit Room just off the lobby. Today is yours to choose your activity. Why not take a boat tour, or go hiking, bird watching, wildlife viewing...there's so much to do. Enjoy!
