along 34th Street to Macy's Herald Square (34th Street). Check out a Map of the Parade Route for more detailed information on where to watch this spectacular event. More than 8,000 people participate in the parade, including clowns, balloon handlers, and marching bands, while 3.5 million people line the streets along the parade route to see it in person and another 50 million watch the parade on television. The parade has been an annual tradition since 1924, and each year it gets bigger and better. This year's line-up will feature giant character balloons, numerous floats, over 1,000 cheerleaders/dancers, over 1,000 clowns, 12 marching bands, many celebrities, and even Santa Claus! After the fun, enjoy a beautiful Thanksgiving Feast.

Meals: Breakfast, Thanksgiving Feast

Day Four: Statue of Liberty & Ellis Island

Start your day with a ferry to Ellis Island. Take in the incredible views of the towering Statue of Liberty as your ferry cruises by her.

More than 12 million people passed through Ellis Island on journeys of immigration. Since 1886, "Lady Liberty" has welcomed immigrants and visitors to New York Harbor. Created as a token of friendship between the U.S. and France, the Statue of Liberty has become a global symbol of freedom. The remainder of the day is at leisure to explore "the city that never sleeps."

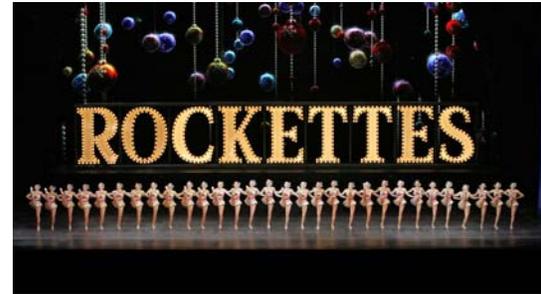

Meals: Breakfast

Day Five: New York City

Enjoy some free time to discover the city at your own pace. Your Tour Manager will have plenty of suggestions for great ways to spend your time. Maybe you'd enjoy a shopping spree at some of the world's most famous department stores, including Macy's, Bloomingdale's and Saks Fifth Avenue. Or be in the Today Show Audience. You can see the Tree in Rockefeller Center or try your luck at ice skating. This afternoon, take your seat for a fantastic show to see the fabulous New York City Rockettes! You'll choose from a selection of Broadway's biggest hits. Say farewell to this extraordinary city as we enjoy dinner at a local restaurant.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day Six: New York City - Tour Ends

We will transport you and your newly found friends to the airport for your flight home. Your tour comes to a close with many pleasant memories of your exciting tour of fabulous "New York, New York."
