a majestic landscape, which few have experienced. Rated as one of the top ten travel destinations by “Conde Naste Traveler Magazine,” enter the inlet through its narrow opening and sail into the placid waters. View pristine falls that tumble into the peaceful waters below. At the entrance to Princess Louisa is the Malibu Club, begun in the 1940's by Tom Hamilton Malibu, once intended to be a luxury resort for movie stars. By the early 50's the project was abandoned and a private group purchased the camp. We then travel up to Princess Louisa Inlet to Chatterbox Falls and Provincial Marine Park. We will have an included picnic lunch. After lunch, a thrilling adventure awaits. Instead of cruising back to Egmont through the same passage, take a spectacular float plane back to Sechelt. All aboard for a scenic float plane flight over Princess Louisa Inlet. Seeing Princess Louisa from sea and sky will be a complete unique experience to really see all of the magic of the land. This itinerary will be run in reverse for half of the group.
