October 17th-October 24th, 2010/
9 days / 8 nights

October 17th-18th, 2010 Seattle to Dublin

Your trip begins with an overnight, transatlantic flight from Seattle to Dublin.

Upon arrival at Dublin airport, a representative will meet you and arrange the included transfer to your hotel. In the afternoon, commencing at 2.30 pm, visit the Guinness Storehouse, the birthplace of this famous pint, in the heart of Dublin.

Meals: In-flight meals international flights only

October 19th, 2010: Dublin

After breakfast, you will take a tour of Dublin's Fair City. You will pass Trinity College, home of the Book of Kells, and will visit St. Patrick's Cathedral. You'll pass O'Connell Street, Europe's largest street, Christchurch Cathedral, and the Bank of Ireland, which is formerly the Irish House of Parliament. If you keep a close eye on the road, you may even spot Molly Malone wheeling her wheelbarrow! This afternoon is free for shopping or sightseeing, and perhaps a visit to Trinity College and the Book of Kells.

Meals: Breakfast

October 20th, 2010: Dublin/Cashel/Blarney/Killarney

This morning, leave the city behind and travel through the gentle hills of Ireland. Travel south through Kildare and Portlaoise to Cashel, where you will stop to visit the Mighty Rock of Cashel. Set on a rocky limestone outcropping, the Rock of Cashel was once seat of the High Kings of Munster and commands stunning views of the surrounding area.

Continue on your journey and visit the village of Blarney, where you'll have the opportunity to enjoy shopping at the Blarney Woollen Mills for all your Irish treasures. Perhaps you will choose to visit Blarney Castle to kiss the Blarney Stone and get the gift of the gab! Arrive in Killarney in the late afternoon in time for dinner and overnight. .

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

October 21st, 2010: Killarney (Ring of Kerry excursion)

An exciting day of travel as you experience one of the most scenic drives in all of Europe around the famous "Ring of Kerry"! Head along the coastline of the Iveragh Peninsula through the towns of Glenbeigh, Cahirciveen, Waterville and Sneem. Complete the tour via the "Ladies View" back to Killarney. This is Ireland as you have always imagined it! Later, enjoy an optional Jaunting Cart Ride offered by your Tour Director.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

October 22nd, 2010: Killarney/Cliffs of Moher/Bunratty

Depart Killarney and travel northwards through Adare, known as Ireland's prettiest village. Continue on to the Cliffs of Moher. Absolutely spectacular views of the Atlantic and Galway Bay await you! Rising 700 feet up from the Atlantic Ocean, the Cliffs stretch for 5 miles along the coastline. You will then visit the Bunratty Folk Park, which depicts life in Ireland in time's past. Continue to your hotel where you are free for the evening.

Meals: Breakfast

October 23rd, 2010: Galway/Medieval Banquet

This morning you will visit Galway, named "The City of Tribes" after the fourteen families who originally settled in the area. Enjoy a short tour of the city, visiting the Cathedral and Claddagh area. Tonight, enjoy a Medieval Banquet in the company of the Lords & Ladies of the castle.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

October 24th, 2010: Dublin to Seattle

After breakfast, depart for Dublin Airport, where you will have time for duty free shopping before your flight back to the USA.
