13 Days

This is how your exotic cruise holiday will unfold..

November 9 -10, 2010-Seattle fly to Venice, Italy

Your exotic holiday begins with a flight from Seattle to Italy. No other country is so filled with history, culture and flat-out fun. Join your tour director on a walking tour through the streets of Venice, into the historic center of what was for centuries Europe's top superpower. After a visit to St. Mark's Basilica the evening are yours to explore the Doge's Palace, waltz on St. Mark's Square or pub crawl your way through this unique city.

Meals: In-flight meals

November 11, 2010-Venice- Board the Vision of the Seas

Your masterpiece-packed trip continues as you board your luxurious liner, Royal Caribbean's Vision of the Seas for a wonderful 9 night cruise. The Vision of the Seas has beautiful onboard amenities too. There's the very soothing Day Spa, two pools, six whirlpools, and the Masquerade Theatre, which features nightly entertainment, like contemporary musical stage productions. And that's just the beginning of your cruise vacation. The day is yours to explore Venice before we set sail for Croatia.

Breakfast and all meals while onboard the ship

November 12, 2010-Split, Croatia

Split is one of the Adriatic's most amazing seaports and Croatia's second-largest city. Not only does this 1700-year-old harbor have its share of historic monuments, museums and galleries but from here you can visit dreamy Adriatic islands, sporting some of the world's best beaches.

All meals while onboard the ship

November 13, 2010-A Day of Cruising

Enjoy a day of cruising the Mediterranean. When you cruise to the "Cradle of Civilization," there's a natural tendency to be more, well, civilized - more relaxed.

All meals while onboard the ship

November 14, 2010-Naples, Italy

Naples is not only picturesque, it's also one of the world's greatest cultural centers, filled with extraordinary works of art and architecture in the classical Greek and Roman styles. Several interesting tours are available of the city itself and the fascinating places that lie just outside of Naples

November 15, 2010-Civitavecchia, Italy

Civitavecchia is the gateway to all the magnificence of the ancient city of Rome. Whether it's the Forum, the Sistine Chapel, the Pantheon or St. Peter's Basilica that sparks your interest and intellect, Rome is home to a lifetime's worth of historical, architectural and spiritual sites. Depending on traffic, the drive from Civitavecchia to Rome takes approximately an hour and a half.

November 16, 2010-Villefranche, France

Villefranche is your gateway to the one-of-a-kind French Riviera, home to Monte Carlo, Cannes and Nice. Shaded by jagged mountains touching deep blue shores, Villefranche offers sunny beaches, sophisticated resort cities, quaint red-roofed villages and spectacular views.

All meals while onboard the ship

November 17, 2010-Barcelona

Barcelona is located in the northeastern part of the country, 90 miles south of the French border. People from all around the world enjoy visiting this city for its individuality, cultural interest and physical beauty.

When Hans Christian Andersen visited in 1862, he remarked that Barcelona was the "Paris of Spain." You're likely to agree. The city is a major cultural center with a fascinating history. Everywhere are archives, libraries, museums and buildings of interest - plus superb examples of modernist and Art Nouveau décor and architecture.

Meals: All meals while onboard the ship

November 18, 2010

Enjoy a day of cruising the Mediterranean. Soak up the sun, take a dip in one of the many pools, play a game of mini golf or take in a comedy show, the choices are endless.

Meals: All meals while onboard the ship

November 19, 2010-Cadiz, Spain

Cádiz may, in fact, be the oldest inhabited city in the western world, with more than 3,000 years of history. Located on the southern coast of Spain, it borders both the Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea. Christopher Columbus departed on two of his voyages to the New World from here and with his discovery of the Americas, Cádiz quickly grew into a major city by importing gold and silver and exporting local specialties like sherry and cork. By the 18th century, Cádiz had become the wealthiest port in Western Europe. Amazingly, this beautiful coastal city has been largely undiscovered by international tourists; however, it is a popular destination for Spaniards in the summer and during Carnival in February and March.

November 20, 2010-Lisbon, Portugal

Portugal is for explorers. Its valiant seamen first charted the Azores, discovered Japan and unlocked the major sea routes the world over. As your ship sails into the harbor of Lisbon, share the anticipation these sailors experienced as they ventured into new and exciting lands for the first time. Enjoy an orientation tour of the city before checking into our lovely hotel.

All meals while onboard the ship
